INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

In case of inclement weather, Friendship Christian School will follow the Wake County Public School's inclement weather policy. We do not follow the Wake County Public School calendar only their inclement weather policy. Please watch the local news concerning closings or delays.

DRESS CODE UPDATE

The school board approved a new policy concerning the dress code for girls. The policy states that girls will be allowed to wear loose fitting wind pants when the predicted high for the day, according to WRAL, is BELOW 40 degrees. This policy applies to both elementary and secondary students. This will be on a trial basis so please make every effort to conform to the requests that are made by the administration.

PROGRESS REPORTS

Progress reports will be sent home on Wednesday, January 31st they must be signed by a parent and returned by Friday, February 2nd.

REENROLLMENT

Thank you to everyone who took advantage of the $50.00 discount for reenrolling early. If you have not reenrolled your student please do as soon as possible since open enrollment begins February 1st. If you have not signed your FACTS form for next year please stop by the school office to sign it.

FLASHING SPIRIT PINS

The Junior class is selling flashing spirit pins! The pins are magnetic, they have a falcon design on them, and they say "Go Falcons". So show your school spirit by purchasing a flashing spirit pin for only $3.00!

VALENTINE'S DAY

The Senior class will be sponsoring a Valentine fundraiser. Parents and students will be able to order stuffed animals, balloons, and heart shaped candy to send to their special valentine during the school day on February 14th. Orders forms will be sent home soon.

LUNCHROOM NEWS

Just a few reminders concerning the lunchroom: Students must order their lunches on Monday for the entire week. If a student is absent during the week please call the school office to cancel their lunch or they will still be charged for the lunch. Thank you!
